

Rules and Regulations Indian Association for Social Psychiatry

CONSTITUTION

Article 1 Name and Domicile

This association shall be known as the Indian Association for Social Psychiatry and its activities shall extend to the whole of India.

Article II Purpose and Objectives

The purposes and objectives of the Association shall be as follows:

- a. To study the nature of man and his cultures and the prevention and treatment of his vicissitudes and behaviour disorders.
- b. To promote national and international collaboration among professionals and societies in fields related to social psychiatry.
- c. To make the knowledge and practice of social psychiatry available to professionals in social psychiatry and other sciences and to the public by such methods as scientific meetings and publications.
- d. To advance the physical, social, psychological and philosophic well-being of mankind by such methods as promotion of research and deliberations into it.
- e. To extend consultations and carry out charitable and voluntary work for the furtherance of the objectives mentioned above.
- f. To do all such things and matters that are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objectives.

Article IIA – Income, Assets and Expenditure

- a. To fulfill its purposes and objectives, the Association may:
 - i. Receive funds as subscriptions, registration fees and donations and to accept endowments, trusts, awards, and gifts in cash or in kind and property whether movable or immovable and use them for the promotion and furtherance of the objectives of the Association,
 - ii. Acquire, hold, possess, mortgage, dispose of, sell, lease or exchange the movable and immovable property of the Association and construct or alter any building, it in the interest of the Association.
- b. The income and property of the Association, wheresoever derived from, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objectives of the Association.

(Amendments article II & IIA w.e.f. 14 May 1992)

Article III Definition

In this Constitution and the Bylaws:

- a. “Association” shall mean the Indian Association for Social Psychiatry.
- b. “Member” shall be inclusive term embracing all categories of membership listed in Article IV. “Voting member” shall mean a Fellow of the Association.
- c. “Council” shall mean the Executive Council of the Indian Association of Social Psychiatry.

- d. "Physician" shall mean a registered medical practitioner under schedule I or II of schedule III of Indian Medical Council Act of 1956 or a person with any other recognized medical qualification which is considered equivalent to the above by the Council.

Article IV – Members

Section 1: There shall be the following categories of membership.

- a. Honorary Fellows:

These are persons not eligible for Fellowship, who have done outstanding scientific and humanitarian work in fields related to social psychiatry.

- b. Fellows:

Fellows shall be either (i) Physicians with 10 years of full time experience as such who have made a significant contribution to social psychiatry OR (ii) Physicians with recognized postgraduate qualifications considered equivalent to these by the council, with 5 additional years of experience, who have made a significant contribution to social psychiatry. OR (iii) professionals in behavioural or social sciences related to mental health and social psychiatry with either ten years of experience after a Master's degree or five years of experience after obtaining Ph.D.. degree or equivalent, who have made a significant contribution to the field of social psychiatry.

(Amendment w.e.f. 14 May 1990)

Only citizens of India or foreign nationals permanently domiciled in India shall be eligible for Fellowship.

- c. Associates:

Associates shall be the persons with some professional back-ground in areas allied to social psychiatry who are interested in the aims and objectives of the Association

- d. Senior Member:

"A senior member of the Indian Association for Social Psychiatry is defined as any member in good standing for five years and attains the age of 65 years whichever is later; should be exempted from membership fee on application on proper information to the Secretary-General."

(Amendment w.e.f. 14 May 1992)

Section 2

- a. All members shall have the right to attend the annual conference and other scientific meetings, to receive a copy of the statement of accounts, annual reports and journal of the Association.

Fellows and Associates shall pay dues and assessments as determined by the Council.

Section 3

Only Fellows shall hold elected offices, serve in the Council or serve as Chairman of Constitutional and other committees.

Section 4

Only Fellows shall be eligible to vote in the election of office bearers and Council members, for amendment of the constitution and bylaws and in meetings of the General body.

Article V – Executive Council

Section 1:

Executive Council shall consist of 20 members; office-bearers named in article VI shall be ex-officio members of the Council. The immediate past-president and the immediate past-Secretary-General shall also be the members of Council. The members of the Council shall be elected by the eligible voting membership of the Association. The Council members including the office-bearers shall serve for the following term:

President and Vice President:	Two years (one term)
Secretary General, Editor and Treasurer:	Four years (two terms)
Members of the Executive Council
Chairpersons and members of
Constitutional Committees:	Four years (two terms)

(Amendment w.e.f. 1 November 2003)

Section 2:

The Council shall exercise all the powers of the Association that are not otherwise assigned. The responsibilities of the Council shall include:-

- a) Interpreting the provisions of the Constitution and the Bylaws
- b) Establishing dues and assessments for membership
- c) Controlling the funds of the Association and authorizing expenditure from the funds.
- d) Administering special funds, grants and awards.
- e) Allowing and withdrawing affiliation of other Organizations.
- f) Authorizing, starting of a branch of the Association.
- g) Appointing an Editor and Editorial Board for publications considered useful in carrying out the aims of the Association.
- h) Appointing and employing professional auditors.
- i) Appointing and approving all committees of the Association. Doing all other necessary things to carry the purposes of the Association not inconsistent with this constitution and its Bylaws, or with the decisions of the General Body.

Article VI-Officers

Section 1:

The officers of the Association shall be President, President-elect, Vice-President, Secretary-General, Treasurer and Editor.

Section 2:

All officers of the Association except the Editor shall be elected at the annual general elections by the eligible voting membership of the Association. The President and the Vice-President shall hold the office for two years (vide amendment 1st Nov 2003) and shall not be eligible for re-election to the same office. The President elect shall be the President for the next year. The Treasurer, and the Secretary-General shall each have a term of four years(w.e.f. amendment 1st Nov 2003) and shall be eligible for re-election, but shall not serve as such for more than two full terms.

Section 3:

The president shall preside at all General meetings of the Association and at all meetings of the Council. He shall be the ex-officio member of Programme, Ethics, Elections and Constitution and Bylaws Committees and ex-officio Returning Officer.

Section 4:

The Vice-President shall perform the duties assigned or delegated to him by the President

Section 5:

The Secretary-General shall keep the records of the Association and perform all duties delegated to him by the Council and the Bylaws. He shall organize and convene all meeting and conferences. He shall present the annual report at the Annual General Body meeting. He shall be ex-officio member of all committees.

Section 6:

The Treasurer or his authorized agent shall receive, disburse and account for all the funds of Association under the general direction of the Council. He shall submit a financial statement each year to the Council and to the General Body.

Section 7:

If the President becomes unable to function because of absence or illness, the Vice-President shall act for the President. In the case of the resignation or death of the President, the Vice-President shall be the President for the remainder of the term.

Section 8:

If the position of the President-elect becomes vacant during the term, the Vice-President shall serve as the President-elect and shall be President for the succeeding year.

Section 9:

The Editor shall be nominated by the Council. He shall have a term of four years and shall be eligible for re-nomination. He shall be an ex-officio member of Journal and Programme Committee.

Section 10:

Any officer can be removed from Office by a two thirds vote of the membership, following proper investigation and recommendations by the Council, after having been given an opportunity to state his case.

Section 11

All the existing office bearers shall hand over the complete charge of the office including all files, documents and funds to the newly elected office bearers within 60 days of the new office bearers assuming the office. If any office bearer fails to do so, he would be debarred from holding any office of the association for the next 12 years(new section vide amendments 20th Nov 2010) .

Article VII – Committees

There shall be the following constitutional committees:

1. Programme Committee
2. Journal Committee
3. Ethics Committee
4. Constitution and Bylaws Committee
5. Elections Committee
6. Awards and Oration Committee
7. Membership Committee

Each committee shall have a Chairman and at least five members all of whom shall be appointed by the council, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Council. The chairman and the members shall each serve a term of four years (as per amendment dated 1 November 2003) unless otherwise decided by the Council.

Article VIII – Annual Conference & General Body Meeting

Section 1 A general conference of the Association shall be held annually(vide amendment Nov 2010) at such time and places as the council shall determine. The annual General Body meeting shall be held at the time and place of the annual conference. Thirty days' notice shall be required for the Annual General Body Meeting. 10% of the fellows shall constitute the quorum for the meeting. If no quorum is present, the meeting shall be reconvened after 30 minutes and if still no quorum is present all the business except constitutional amendments should be completed (modified vide amendments w.e.f. 20th Nov 2010)

Section 2: An extra-ordinary meeting of the General-body may be requisitioned for specific purposes either by the Council or by 15% of voting members, with the permission of the President, 15% of voting members shall constitute quorum for the meeting. 15 days' notice of the meeting with agenda shall be given to members

Article IX – Affiliations

Section 1:

The Council can seek affiliation of the Association with any organization whose aims and objectives are similar/compatible to those of the Association.

Section 2:

The Council may accord affiliation to any scientific and social organization with aims and goals compatible with those of the Association. The affiliated organizations shall pay dues as determined by the Council. The Council shall be competent to withdraw affiliation.

Section 3:

The Association and the organizations with which it affiliates itself shall have no claim to the assets of nor any responsibility in the liabilities of each other.

Article X – Amendments

Section 1:

Proposals to amend the constitution may originate either:-

a) By a petition signed by 5 or more voting members

OR

b) By a motion proposed by the Constitution and Bylaws Committee.

Section 2:

Proposed amendments to the Constitution must be received by the Secretary General at least 60 days before the Annual General Body meeting.

Section 3: Each proposed amendment shall be considered at the Annual General Body meeting and if approved by 2/3 of the members present, it shall become effective immediately’(vide amendment w.e.f. Nov 2010)

BY-LAWS

Article I Election of Members

1. Any person desirous of becoming a member shall make an application in the prescribed form. His name shall have been proposed and seconded by one Fellow each of the Association. He shall pay application fee fixed by the Council.
2. The application for membership shall be considered by the Council for election. The member, on election, shall pay admission fee and annual subscription determined by the Council and sign a declaration in the form “I hereby solemnly pledge that I shall promote the aims and objectives of the Indian Association for Social Psychiatry to the best of my ability and shall abide by its constitution and bylaws,” after which he shall become a member. A member shall be deemed to have been a member since the date of his election by the Council.

3. Five fellows may propose any Honorary Fellowship. The Council may, at the Annual Council meeting, elect the person so proposed to Honorary Fellowship.
4. The yearly subscription shall become due on January 1st. A member shall forfeit all membership rights, if he does not pay it by 30th June. The membership rights shall be restored only on payment of all dues.

Article II – Termination of Membership & Reinstatement

1. The Council may delete from membership a person who for three consecutive years fails to pay dues inspite of a final notice regarding his dues from the Treasurer or the Secretary General.
2. The membership of any member may be terminated for other reasons which the Council may deem sufficient by votes of not less than two thirds of the Council members present at a special meeting called for this purpose or at the annual Council meeting. The member concerned shall have rights to explain his conduct and the Secretary-General shall acquaint all the members of the Council with his explanation. He shall have the right to appeal to the General Body if he so desires, but in this case he must inform the Secretary General of his desire to do so within a month of the receipt of the decision of the Council.
3. Person earlier elected may return to the Association only by being processed as a new member. However, he must disclose on the application that he had earlier been deleted, and if re-elected, in case of deletion on account of nonpayment of dues, he must pay all arrears or two years subscription in lieu of arrears.

Article III – The Executive Council

1. The Council shall meet at the time of the Annual Conference (this meeting shall be called the Annual Council Meeting) and at such other times as decided by the Secretary-General. Four members shall constitute the quorum for the Council meetings. The Secretary-General shall give twenty days notice of such meetings.
2. The decisions of the Council taken during the year shall be reviewed at the Annual Council meeting, when the Council may withdraw, rescind or modify any or all such decisions.

Actions taken earlier on the basis of Council decision shall, however, remain valid.

3. Any three members may with the permission of the President, requisition a meeting of the Council. The Secretary-General may with the permission of the President requisition an extra-ordinary meeting of the council. Notwithstanding anything in Article III, Section I of the Bylaws, the permission of the President shall be necessary for convening such meetings. 10 days notice shall be required for an extra-ordinary meeting.

4. Every meeting of the Council shall be presided over by the President, in his absence by the Vice-President, in absence of both by the President-elect and in the absence of all three by a member chosen at the meeting.
5. In case a Council member or Office bearer resigns or is unable to serve, the Council may co-opt another Fellow. Such cooption shall be valid only upto the next elections. The council shall be competent to act in spite of any vacancy.
6. A Council member or Office bearer shall be considered as “Unable to Serve” for the purpose of Section 5 above, if he intends to or has resided outside the country continuously for six months or more.
7. Written comments of absent members may be considered at the Council but all questions shall be determined by the members present.

Article IV – Election of Office Bearers & Council Members

1. The Secretary General shall solicit nominations for election of office bearers and Council members. Each nomination must be proposed by one and seconded by another eligible voting member and contain consent of the nominee in writing. All nominations must be received by a date determined by the Council. Ballots shall be mailed to the voting members at least forty-five days before the Annual General Body meeting.
2. Voting shall be by secret postal ballot only. The votes must be received by the Returning Officer at least fifteen days before the Annual General Body meeting.
3. If no nomination has been received for a particular post, by the due date, the Council shall be authorized to elect a Fellow to the post. The Fellow, thus elected shall hold office for one year.
4. One year in office shall be from the day immediately following an annual conference to the last day of the next annual conference.

Article V – Committees

1. The constitutional committees shall serve under the supervision of the Council and shall perform such duties as prescribed by the Council
2. The Programme Committee, unless otherwise decided by the Council, shall have total responsibility and authority over arrangements and content of the scientific programme of the annual conference.

3. The Election Committee, unless otherwise decided by the Council, shall be authorized to scrutinize and reject nominations received for the general elections and shall be responsible for conducting the elections under the guidance of the Returning Officer.
4. Ethics Committee shall enquire and investigate instances of unethical conduct by the members, and shall recommend to the Council appropriate action under Article II, Section 2 of the Bylaws. It shall also advise the Editor in matters of unethical advertisement.
5. The Council shall be competent to replace any individual as Chairman or member of a Committee for good and sufficient reasons.

Article VI – Annual Conference

1. Those desirous of inviting the annual conference may address their invitation to the Secretary-General. The Secretary-General shall solicit invitations from all members of the Association and shall keep a list of pending invitations.
2. The Council shall determine the venue and dates of the annual conference. The Council may consult the General Body in this matter and elicit their wishes.
3. The person or persons inviting the Conference shall form a reception or organizing committee and shall elect its own office-bearers, one of whom shall be designated as the Organizing-Secretary. The Organizing-Secretary shall be responsible to the Secretary-General and the Council as regards the local arrangements.
4. The reception/organizing committee and Organizing-Secretary shall be responsible for (i) arranging accommodation and food for the delegates, (ii) arranging halls, rooms and audio-visual aids for the meeting, scientific session etc., (iii) printing a summary booklet of the scientific papers, printing of the detailed programme, and routine stenographic assistance, (iv) arranging for a suitable dignitary (with the approval of the Secretary-General) to inaugurate the Conference, and (v) arranging social and culture functions and sightseeing, if they so wish.
5. The registration fee and banquet charges for members shall be fixed by the Council.
6. The Organizing-Secretary of the organizing or reception committee shall not send any invitations to national dignitaries, foreign societies and government agencies at the Centre. All such invitations shall be sent by the President or the Secretary-General. The Organizing-Secretary, however, may invite, with the permission of the Secretary-General, local dignitaries and individuals other than the above to attend the Conference.

Article XVII- Amendments

Proposed amendments to the Bye laws shall be handled in the same manner as amendments to the constitution' (amended w.e.f. 20th Nov 2010)

DISSOLUTION OF THE ASSOCIATION

Any member not less than 3/5th of the members present at the meeting convened for the purpose, may determine that the Association shall be dissolved. If, on the dissolution of the Association, there shall remain after the satisfaction of its debts and liabilities, any property what-so-ever, the same shall not be paid or distributed among the members of the Association or any of them but shall be given to some other Society having similar objects.

Certified to be a true copy of the Rules and Regulation of the Association. With amendments till Nonember 2010.

B S Chavan
Secretary-General
Indian Association of Social Psychiatry