

Annexure I-Information-Japanese Society of Psychiatry and Neurology Fellowship Award

Japanese Society of Psychiatry and Neurology Fellowship Award
Application Deadline: September 27th, 2026 (Japan time)

The Japanese Society of Psychiatry and Neurology is pleased to invite young psychiatrists from around the world to apply for the Japanese Society of Psychiatry and Neurology Fellowship Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize early-career, outstanding psychiatrists and to encourage academic discussion and personal friendships with early-career Japanese psychiatrists at the 123rd annual meeting of the JSPN in June 24th to 26th, 2027 in Nagoya, Japan.

Award recipients will receive a waiver of meeting registration fees, accommodation, and a prize (JPY 70,000 for recipients from World Bank A and B category countries, and JPY 140,000 for those from C and D countries). Award recipients will be expected to give a presentation at one of the international sessions, the themes of which are;

1. School-based Mental Health Promotion
2. Case Vignette

and attend other programs for JSPN Fellowship Award recipients. Award recipients will also be expected to participate in future JSPN Fellowship Award Alumni programs.

Applicants must:

1. Be 40 years old or less, or have 10 years or less experience in psychiatry when the JSPN Annual Meeting is held in 2027
2. Not be previous recipients of the JSPN Fellowship Award
3. Belong to a World Psychiatric Association member society
(To ensure broad participation from around the world, the JSPN accepts nominations from each society up to a maximum of two applicants.)

Meeting Information

The 123rd Annual Meeting of the Japanese Society of Psychiatry and Neurology

-Date: June 24th to 26th, 2027

-Venue: Nagoya Congress Center

-Meeting president: Nakao Iwata, M.D., Ph.D. (President, Fujita Health University)

-Theme: To Craft a Visionary Compass for the Future of Psychiatric and Medical Practice